

Picada y Vino

Park Sloper toast this “charming new” vino boutique, a spiffy storefront where the 225-label, seasonally rotating lineup is “well thought out” to focus on small producers and organic vintages; it hosts Saturday tastings with food pairings (adjourned to the back deck in summer), and though there’s “not a huge selection”, picky partisans sense there’s “more soul to the place” than many in the area.
